Six Blinn College Players Make All-Texas JCAC Baseball Team

Blinn College placed six players on the all-Texas Junior College Athletic Conference baseball team selected by the conference's coaches last week.

Freshman second baseman Jim Twardowski, besides making the team, was named the No. 4 ranked player in the Region 14. Infielder Grant Priess was also named to the all-region team. The region is made up of the TJCAC, the Texas Eastern Conference and independents in the area.

Other Blinn players selected to the all-conference team were catcher Keith Kearney, pitcher Charlie Corbell, outfielder Terry Lawrence and designated hitter Scott Eckermann.

All are sophomores except for Corbell and Twardowski, both freshmen.

San Jacinto, the TJCAC champion, had the region's No. 1 rated player, pitcher Mark Brogden. Following were Scott Huntsman, catcher, Alvin; Eric Smith, outfielder, Panola; Twardowski; and Mark Bowden, pitcher, San Jacinto.

The all-TJCAC team consisted of catchers Jeff Jacobson of San Jac and Kearney of Blinn; pitchers Jesse Sanchez of San Antonio, Brogden and Bowden of San Jac, Corbell of Blinn and Greg Moore of Wharton; first basemen Jesse Lawson of Bee and Priess of Blinn; second baseman Twardowski of Blinn; third basemen Larry Midkiff of San Antonio and Wesley Gregersen of San Jac; shortstops Brett Baker of Wharton and Warren Oliver of Bee; outfielders Mickey Rodriguez of San Antonio, Mark Lavespere of San Jac, Doug Bippet of Wharton and Lawrence of Blinn; and designated hitters Eckermann of Blinn, Jeff Achilles of San Jac and Pete Wilkerson of Bee.
