

Band, Choir Students Off To Peru

DICKINSON—Seven excited students, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gus Nelson will board a plane June 25th at 5:40 a.m. bound for Miami, Florida and ultimately, Peru.

They are band students and members of the choir from the Dickinson High School who will be participating in the All American Youth Honor Band With Choir, presenting concerts in Lima, Peru.

Mr. Nelson, head of the bands at the High School, and Mrs. Nelson, will accompany and chaperone the students.

Going on the trip are Becky Gomez, clarinetist, Karen Burns, baritone horn and Linda Burch, oboist from the band; Jennifer McAnulty, Teresa Magliolo, Susan Benoist and Janet Menotti, of the choir.

The Youth Band project is a non-profit organization and is endorsed by the People to People Program, and is assisted* by the United States Information Service, the School of Music, University of Miami and the American Federation of Musicians.

It is organized to give outstanding musicians an opportunity to utilize their performing skills to further international understanding and to develop good will through music.

Ralph Liese, director of Instrumental Activities at Houston Baptist College and principal trombonist with the Houston Symphony Orchestra will be conductor of the group of which the Dickinson students will be a part.

ket,
a li
Mon
A
serv
give sho will for will bag
on
T
Kle
cou
one
and lar