

Dickinson High School Hosts Band Concert

DICKINSON-Dickinson High School was host to a band contest Friday when Galveston, Alvin, Pearland and Santa Fe competed against the local band students.

Two members of the Dickinson group made all state symphony and all state youth orchestra. They were Debra Benoist, who also made region and all state symphony, being named first chair in timpani and Theresa Magliolo, all state Youth Orchestra in flute.

Regional winners in the first chair division were Debbie Haskovec, bassoon; Keith Willhelm, French horn; Barbara Jenkins, E flat clarinet and Karen Burns, baritone horn.

Second chair winners in the B flat section were Johnny Norris, Gene Stephens, Beth Campbell, Paul Krieg and Carol Faget. Paul Downing placed 3rd chair in cornet;

Alcy Jones, 2nd chair, snare drum; Jennifer McAnulty, 2nd chair, flute; Don Salvato, 2nd chair, alto sax; Joe Willhelm, 2nd chair, tuba and John Dewey, 3rd chair, tuba.

Making the district level were Debbie Neely, 4th chair, French horn; Rusty Hall, 6th chair, tuba; Diane Liggio, 6th chair, flute; James Neal, 5th chair, trombone; 19th chair, Saralyn Thompson, clarinet; Harvey Kinney, 5th chair, cornet and Mike Caserta, 8th chair, cornet.

Susan Benoist was named to the All-region choir and runner-up to all state. Girls who made all-state will meet in San Antonio Feb. 20-22 for the All-State Band Festival. Regional Band try-outs will be held in Wharton Saturday and the Regional Band will perform Jan. 10-11, according to Gus Nelson, Dickinson band director.