

DONNIE OWENS has been employed by the Dickinson School District as music supervisor and high school band director.

He received his bachelors degree in music from Southwestern State College in Durant, Oklahoma, and his masters in music from North Texas State University in Denton, and has had 13 years experience as a high school band director.

He began his teaching career in band work as director of the Antlers High School Band in Antlers, Oklahoma, a position he held for four years. Next he moved to Junction City, Kansas, for one year and then to Durant, Oklahoma, where he has served as band director for eight years until the present time.

This past year the Durant Band, which Owens directed, was one of five high school bands in the United States that was invited to perform for the 26th Annual Mid-West National Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago, Illinois.

Owen's wife is named Margaret Ann and the couple have two children.
