

McAdams Choir takes honors at Region

From STAFF REPORTS

During the recent region choir competition held at Taylor High School in Katy, Dickinson's McAdams Junior High School Choir placed three students in the region choir and nine students won first division in Solo competition.

More than 700 students from 28 schools competed for a place in the two region choirs, seating 236 students.

Students winning first division medal in solo contests were: Wendy Murray, won a 1st division award for the second year in a row; Christina Peterson, Kisha Jackson, Kim Schuster and Julie Nguyen, all eighth graders.

Seventh graders winning 1st division solo contest medals were: Kara Kimbrough, Christina Foreman, Candice Hughes and Krystte Spriggins.

Those students making Region Choir were: Julie Nguyen and Randy Clark, both eighth graders. Clark made region choir last years. Kara Kimbrough, a seventh grader also made the region choir.

McAdams choral teacher is Ramona Brundett.