

The Dickinson Junior High School Student Council for 1964-65 is made up of a group of students from the 7th and 8th and 9th grades as follows: Front row: left to right: Jo Ann Hartley, Karen Krieg, Dennis Cooks (Vice President), Dennis Bailey, (president) Jackie Shivers; 2nd row, Gale Querry, (secretary-treasurer), Cora Schelling, Jean Roman, Molly Casey, Paula Story, Vickie Sizemore, Lisa McDonald; Back row, Stuart McGregor, Jesse Lopez, Dale Glazner, Ricky Diehl, Tommy Saunders, John Van Der, Tommy Cooper and Larry Walker.

The children are not picked by grades but by class, with two candidates for each office. The officers are chosen by a nominating committee which consists of representatives from each grade and they are then chosen by written ballot. Each first period Home Room class selects their representatives to the Council.

The Council studies various activities and school problems and student service problems. Regular meetings are called by the president.

They are organizing for the gifts for Christmas and the drawing of names. A "Dress Up Day" has also been started at which time they dress up for special occasions in the school.
