

NEW SUBURBAN JOURNAL SALESMEN—These young men, all members of the Dickinson Youth Club, will soon be knocking on the doors of Dickinson homes, in an effort to sell subscriptions to the Suburban Journal. Under the sponsorship of the Dickinson Optimist Club, the money they raise will be used in projects of the Youth Club, which includes the setting up of a rifle range, and buying of jackets for the club members. Seated left to right, are Bill Krieg, Billy Sumrall, Don Parr, Dale Glazner and Danny Jones. Standing are Tom Lewis, Dr. Bryan McKenzie, president of the local club, Marlon Tucker, Nathan Pheneger, Bill Glidden, Andy Franklin, Robert Scheel and William Stallings, chairman of the boys group.

John Anderson, not shown, is Boys Work chairman of the Dickinson Optimist Club. Also members of the Youth group, but not present are Mark Querry and Rusty Hall. Meetings of the club are held at the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church parish hall each Wednesday at 6 p.m.
