

LISON MADDOX, a sophomore of Dickinson High School, will represent her school in the finals for the O'Brian Youth Foundation Leadership Seminar on Government and will have a chance to attend a national seminar to be held in Washington, D.C. March 6-19. Washington sophomores from throughout the U.S. will be participating in a program coordinated through a Presidential Classroom for Young Americans. During the week-long in-depth leadership seminar on government, the students will meet national leaders and gain a better understanding of our government through an appreciation of political relationships and influences that shape events and the conduct of our affairs.

Other semi-finalists were Jean Robinson, Stephen King, Tom Chandler, Michael Klaus, Helen Harrison, Kathy Hunt and Craig Fundling.
