

March 1975

WINNING SENIOR ACT in the county 4-H contest was the skit "4-H Can Make It Happen." Members of the cast shown here are, from left, Oscar Woods III, Susan Ritchie, Carla Smith and Bruce Pace.

Skits Takes Festival Honors

ALTA LOMA—The skit "4-H Can Make It Happen" took first place in the senior division of the Galveston County 4-H Share-the-Fun Festival recently in Santa Fe Junior High School.

The Port Bolivar 4-H Club was top winner in the junior division. A total of 36 members performed in the contest.

Members of the winning senior act are Bruce Pace of Lucky Clover 4-H Club, Oscar Wood III of Dickinson 4-H Club, Susan Ritchie of Mainland 4-H Club and Carla Smith of Indians 4-H Club.

Members of the winning junior group are Kim Monteau, Shellie Segura, Debbie Bouse, Laurie Ann Greb, Danny Segura, Joseph Roberts, David Cripps and Melvin Kahla, all of Port Bolivar 4-H Club.

The winning acts will represent Galveston County in the district contest April 26.

Gayle Meador of Woodland 4-H Club and Laurie Ann Greb of Port Bolivar Club were mistresses of ceremonies for the county contest. Judges were Ida Mae Belt of the Hitchcock Home Demonstration Club, Judy Doggett of Friendswood and the Rev. Ron Fleming of Galveston.

Members of the county planning committee for the contest were Gayle Meador, Laurie Ann Greb, Mary Ann Currie, Carla Smith and James Tadlock.

Awards were presented by James Dunn, county 4-H and youth subcommittee chairman.