

LIKE BROADWAY—Colored lights, grease paint, music, singing—everything that makes a great Broadway musical was present at Dickinson Junior High School last Thursday when the girls from the physical education classes presented an assembly program. Shown here is roughly one fourth of the cast of performers gathered on the stage for a bow and pictures.