

Drama Offering This Week

DICKINSON—The new season opens for the Dickinson High School drama dept. on October 26, 27, and 28 with the first showing ever of a new play "The Times and Crimes of Hobart Grimes." The play promises to be different from the normal in that it is "experimental." The play is unpublished and produced here for the first time. Director is George P. Parks, Jr.

The play is headed by Alan King (as Hobart Grimes), an all star actor last year; Debbie Hime (as Agatha Felderman), last year's Best Actress at DHS; Kenny Laird; Michelle Bridwell; Tricia Gallaber; and Richard Hamner. Becky Dace is stage manager. Laura and Nora Green, Donna Peikert, Louise West, Bob Hardin, Meg Leavenworth, and Barbara Wiener are the stage crew. The play opens Thursday, October 26 and runs through Saturday. Performances begin at 7:30 each evening, and all seats are $1.00.
