

Town of Dickinson to Have New, Up-to-Date High School

DICKINSON HIGH SCHOOL.

Special to The News.
Dickinson, Tex., Aug. 4.—Ground was broken Monday morning for the new $15,000 school building for this city. Gracey & Avery of Galveston are the contractors and propose to have the building ready for occupancy by Nov. 1. The above photo is from the architect's drawing.

acres in the amount planted around this place, and no doubt many more acres will be planted next year.

This vicinity is forging to the front as a cotton-producing point. W. B. Springfield, who located here from Mexico two years ago, has fifty acres planted, and he claims that it is as good as any he ever raised in North Texas. Very few boll weevils and no other harmful insects have shown up so far. He expects to get a bale to the acre. Two hundred
