

SEPTEMBER 7, 1916.

FIVE SCHOOLS OPEN FOR SEASON.

Work Begins in County Communities
With Good Attendance.

Five of the Galveston County schools have opened for the new school year—La Marque, Kemah, Alta Loma, Arcadia and Dickinson. The attendance enrolled is considered good, there being about one hundred pupils at the La Marque School, sixty at Kemah, two hundred at Alta Loma, two hundred at Arcadia and four hundred at Dickinson. These figures represent the approximate enrollment.

All the other county schools will open Monday, with the exception of Friendswood, which will open the 1st of October.
