

SEPTEMBER 13, 1925.

SCHOOLS OF COUNTY TO OPEN TOMORROW

FACULTY ASSIGNMENTS FOR MAINLAND INSTITUTIONS ARE ANNOUNCED.

With all teachers back after the four-day institute in Galveston, schools on the mainland of the county will open their doors tomorrow for a nine months' session.

A larger enrollment than ever is expected this year, according to Superintendent of Schools O. E. Kennedy. The scholastic population shows a decided gain, he said.

Practically all of the contracts of Galveston County teachers have been approved by the superintendent. The following teachers on the mainland have been listed in the superintendent's office:

High Island—Artie D. Remley, Thelma Williard, Vera Alexander.

Alta Loma—Mable E. Baskett, Gaylord Kline.

League City—Winifred Bump, Pearl Fuller, Thelma Harris, James E. Jordan, Margaret Stopfort, Mrs. R. N. Wilson, R. N. Wilson.

Hitchcock—Martina Buelow, Beulah Enloe, Elnora Murke, Lillian Sosby.

Port Bolivar—Pearl Christian, Anna Lightfoot, Ellen Neal.

San Leon—Faye Cook.

Island—Mrs. Nettle Dominy, Etta Pegoda.

Dickinson—Mrs. C. E. Dryden, Mrs. B. P. McLaughlin, Wilminor Morris, Della Munro, Clem Murphy, Lee Nesbitt, Ada La Peyre Porter, L. L. Porter, Mr. Rice.