

DICKINSON

BY MARIE YEDEL.

The students taking part in the play, "Just for Fun," have been working very hard rehearsing and learning their parts. The students that are taking part in it are: Frank Schon as Jack Earl, Madeline Benoist as an English maid, Wilson Deats as Lord Chelsea, Theresa Fitzgerald as Edith Morton, Ruby Strom as Mrs. Fitzgerald Mandeville Synthe, and Celeste Epperson as Miss Mable West. It is to be presented at the Dickinson High School auditorium Thursday night, April 30. J. E. Parish is director.

The Big Brother Entertainers appeared at the Dickinson school auditorium Friday for the benefit of the P. T. A.

The cooking class students will serve the county school board April 28. The girls, with the supervision of Miss Bace, cooking instructor, are going to make out the menu for that occasion.

Frank Schon, a ninth grader, won first place in the essay contest at county and district meet, went to the regional meet Saturday.

Henry Ottwork, president of the senior class, called a meeting Thursday. The class discussed the trip that it is going to make to Huntsville May 1, and a committee on transportation was appointed.

Wednesday morning, we were entertained by Mr. Concannon. He lectured on five good mottoes and told many jokes. The students enjoyed this very much.

The candidates for graduation this year as follows: Henry Ottwork, Weldon Edge, Fred Duhning, Malcolm Deats, Charley Massell, L. D. Rice, Wilson Deats, Bertha Hartman, Dorothy Barnes, Leontine Droulhet, Ava Lee Selensky, Phraulene Hamilton, Celeste Epperson, Ruby Strom, Josephine Emmite, Minnie Napoli, Doris Lawrence, and Marie Yedel.

Rev. J. P. Sparling will give the baccalaureate sermon Sunday night, May 17.

The fifth, sixth and seventh graders are going to present the "Annexation of Texas" at the county park, May 1. Their part opens with Pres. Tyler, Pres. Jones and Gov. Henderson. They give speeches about Texas being annexed to the union. In the meantime, characters in their colorful costumes come out on the stage representing cotton, oil, sulphur, farming, ranching and truck farming.

Mr. Henderson receives the gavel of office from the president of the United States. Boy Scouts enter with flags. Finally, Henderson leads the entire cast from the stage. The students who will take part are: C. E. Benning as Pres. Tyler, Floyd Strom as Pres. Jones, Alfred Hoffman as Henderson, Thelma Benning as cotton, Lawrence Tolbert as oil, Phillip Carona as sulphur, Peter Banerlito as ranching, Virginia Johnson as truck farming, Albert Holdman as farming. Two Boy Scouts will be Doris Marsh and Corde Benoist.

The first grade pupils seem to be enjoying the work they are doing at the present time very much. They are drawing pictures of circus animals which are going to be placed on card board, then made into cut-outs for their sand table.
