

DICKINSON

BY NONA BLAND.

The student council of Dickinson high school was organized the first week of school and the work is progressing well. A boy and a girl elected from each class in high school as representatives to the council met with Helmut Sommer, president; Jean Graves, vice president, and James Cotter, secretary, and planned their work for the year. The president appointed chairmen of various committees as follows: Jean Graves, assembly; Sybil Horton, social; Elaine Winzer, lost and found; Dorothy Mae Kraus, library; Nona Bland, publications; Tony Giacchino and Albert Holmans, athletics, and Jackie Keel, cleanup committee. Each chairman chose a teacher to sponsor his committee.

The Dickin-Sun.

The first issue of the Dickin-Sun, the Dickinson high school paper, was published Friday, Sept. 29, by the publication committee of the student council. The staff of the Dickin-Sun consists of: Editor in chief, Nona Bland; assistant editor, Anthonette Dues; art editor, Betty Barnes; campus chatter editor, Betty Cotterside; sports, Pete Demeter; feature editor, Philly Carroll; business manager, Philip Frank, and grade news, Elaine Winzer. The publication committee hopes to publish a yearbook this year and information is being gathered on the subject already.

Junior-Soph Party.

The juniors and sophomores of Dickinson High had an all-day picnic Saturday, Sept. 30, at the San Jacinto battlegrounds. After visiting the monument, they ate lunch on the battlegrounds and returned home on the school bus. O. J. Baker, principal, sponsored the party.

Homemaking Club.

The Homemaking Club met Wednesday, Sept. 27, on the school grounds and elected the following officers for the 1939-40 school term: President, Jean Graves; vice president, Elaine Winzer; secretary, Bessie Baucum; treasurer, Ethel Benolt; historian, Mary Frances Hickey; reporter, Gloria Garner; song leader, Mary Frances Smith; pianist, Nona Bland. The officers were installed in high school assembly Friday, Oct. 5. The club plans to attend the semi-annual convention of the Homemakers' Club of the district at Alvin Saturday, Oct. 14.

Band Practice.

The Dickinson High School Band, under the leadership of Conway Shaw of Galveston, have received their uniforms and are learning to march. Alice Cotter was chosen drum major for the band and twirlers are Gloria Garner and Dimple Jo Keys.

Football.

The Dickinson Gators played the Barbers Hill Eagles Friday afternoon, Oct. 6, at 3 o'clock in Barbers Hill. The score was 32-0 in favor of Barbers Hill. This was Dickinson's first conference game. Others in their conference are Anahuac, Saraloga, Sour Lake, Cedar Bayou and Crosby.

Pep Squad.

The Dickinson High pep squad elected officers last week as follows: President, Mary Frances Smith; vice president, Sybil Horton; secretary, Becky Fisher; treasurer, Glenn Kraus; reporter, Jane Winzer; sergeant at arms, Ruth Browne, and cheer leaders, Doris Long, Wanda Fisher and Nona Bland. The girls received their new military style uniforms Thursday and wore them for the first time Friday to the Barbers Hill game. They sold soda water and candy at the town hall show in Houston last Friday night at the school auditorium to help pay for their uniforms.
