

Up thru the 1940's the only school in Dickinson that offered kindergarten classes was True Cross Catholic School. Some of the Protestant kids were allowed to attend their school. In the 1944-45 school year, Ernie Deats graduated kindergarten class at True Cross.