The Dickinson High School Future Teachers of America organization went to Spring Branch last Saturday for the annual district convention. Thirty local members attended, accompanied by Mrs. Otto Hill, Mr. Herschel Riley, Mr. R. D. McAdams and Mr. Sam Vitanza.

Miss Margie Williams, entry from Dickinson, won the title of Miss F.T.A. of District No. 1. Miss Williams was presented with a plaque to be kept one year.

Dickinson also had charge of a morning workshop. "Projects and Activities," conducted by Elizabeth Connell and Carolyn Porter. A film was shown concerning the work of a group of teachers in changing the attitudes of a rather delinquent boy (the construction of good citizens by the teaching profession.)

The business meeting then proceeded with the assembly of the House of Delegates. Sixty delegates represented more than six hundred future teachers in District No. 1. Dickinson's candidate for district president, Frank Emmitte, won a sweeping victory with a 51-9 vote on the first ballot. Elections for remaining officers were concluded, and the convention adjourned.

Next year the district convention will be held at Dickinson High School under the direction of President Frank Emmitte.
