

Fire protection week was observed last week in Dickinson Elementary School with a fire drill. Students were evacuated in an unobstructed drill in 45 seconds with all classroom and building exit doors closed. All students in the school district participate in a drill twice each month. Fire safety is also taught in certain grades. Because the schools thus meet the requirements set forth by the State Insurance Commission, homeowners receive a reduced fire insurance rate.