

MORE JUNIOR HIGH CLASSROOMS — Construction in the Dickinson School District is going up to keep pace with a growing student population. The girders shown in this picture are for a new library and classroom wing on the Junior High campus. New additions are also under construction at this time at Dunbar School and at Dickinson Primary School.

