

STADIUM EXPANDED — A new 2000-seat section of reserved, numbered bleacher seats is shown in this photo of Dickinson's Gator Stadium, with the old seats in the part of the stadium below the light standard. The numbering of seats is new at Dickinson this year, and all improvements to the stadium are expected to be completed by the first home game Sept. 10, against Sweeny. Season tickets are being sold at $4 for five home games, with individual tickets for each game to cost $1.25.
