Class Of '33 Gathers

DICKINSON-The Dickinson High School graduating class of 1933 recently gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam F. Emmite for a class reunion.

The event was highlighted by the presence of a former classmate, Mrs. Mary Steafe Gjuranovick, who was Miss Mary Shosty back in 1933.

Mrs. Gjuranovick is now visiting in the Dickinson area for the first time in 32 years. Married to a modernistic artist, she and her husband have made their home in Yugoslavia, behind the Iron Curtain, during this time.

The have two children. One is a student. The other served as first mate on the ship that brought Mrs. Gjuranovick to the United States.

The visitor arrived at her mother's, Mrs. L.J. Shosty in San Leon, on November 7 and will remain until June or July.

Six of the 12-member graduating class of 1933 attended the gathering including Mrs. Ruth Drees Lovoi of Houston, Mrs. Katie Napoli Goolsby, Sam F. Emmite, Rosie Pollastrini Emmite (Mrs. Frank R.), all of Dickinson; Mrs. Harmon Gladys Hardy Ellis of Australia and Mrs. Gjuranovick.

Other members of the class of '33 included Georgette Knight, Yvonne Epperson, Jerry Ann Hickey, Annabelle Barnes, Josie Pizaaa and Josephine Salvato.
