DICKINSON-Dickinson High School took first place in the One Act Play Contest sponsored by the University Interscholastic League, District 12 AAA.

The contest was held Friday at the Clear Creek High School Auditorium.

A scene from "Androcles and the Lion" by Aurand Harris was Dickinson's presentation. It was directed by George P. Parks Jr., speech and drama teacher at the High School.

Two of the actors in the Dickinson play were chosen to the All Star cast. They were Chuck Bulot and Jacque Browning.

Bulot played the part of Androcles, Jacque the Lion. Other actors were John Prestidge as Pantalone; Jackie Kilgore, Captain; Mike Trippodo, Lellie; Joan Parker, Isabella and Kathy Wells as Columbina.

Crew members were Susan Caswell, Debbie Heckendorn and Billy Rose.

The win will enable the cast to go to the regional meet to be held soon at Houston Baptist College.

Lincoln High School of La Marque won second place with "Impromptu" by Tad Mosel, directed by Evelyn Harris.

In the cast were Jeanette Whitaker, Curtis Simpson, Reginald Sears and Suzie Hayward.

Clear Creek High School always a good contender came in third, with a scene from "The Miser" by Moliere.

In the cast were Margaret Wilhelm, Richard Dramer, Mike Sonnier, Ken Perkowski, Mary Lois Kokesh, Melly Turner and Mel Shelton. Reggie Schwander was director.

Other schools competing were Alvin, La Porte, Hitchcock, and Channelview.
