

DICKINSON JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS first place winners in U. I. L. Meet.

Dickinson Is Host To U.I.L. Meeting

DICKINSON—R. D. McAdams Junior High School was host to the University Interscholastic League meet held Saturday, March 29, here in Dickinson. Co-chairmen of the meet were Mrs. Ed Landry and Miss Sara Lee Mixon, faculty members of the school.

Participating schools and their final ratings were: First place winner—Deepwater Junior High from Deer Park; second place winner—R. D. McAdams Junior High; third place winner—Seabrook Junior High School from Seabrook; fourth place winner—Crocker Junior High School from Channelview.

There were fourteen speech events held in which the Dickinson students participated under the direction of Mrs. Landry and Miss Mixon. Mrs. R. Ferguson was director of the Ready Writing and Spelling Contests. Mr. Robert Fitch was sponsor of the Number Sense category.

Winners from Dickinson in the competition were as follows:

Boys Poetry Memorization: Dennis Wingo, first place; Mark Kleypas and Jeff Oden were finalists.

Girls Poetry Memorization: Sharlyn Hoffman, third place; Cathy Labay, finalist.

Boys Bible Reading: Mitchel Winick, first place; Mark Kleypas, second place.

Girls Bible Reading: Denise Richburg, first place; Debbie Barton, third place; Brenda Toombs, finalist.

Duet Acting: Terry and Merry Fagg, finalists.

Boys Poetry Interpretation: Mitchel Winick, third place.

Girls Poetry Interpretation: Barbara Weiner, second place.

Boys Impromptu: Ronny Brewer, third place; Terry Casey, finalist.

Girls Impromptu: Merry Fagg, first place; Debbie Hime, second place.

7th Grade One Act Play - Sally Barth, All-Star Cast award. The play presented by McAdams Junior High came in as second place winner, with the cast of Devon Colvert, Cynthia Stanford, Sally Barth, Dennis Wingo, David Wilson and Stacy Bates.

8th Grade One Act Play - The play presented by McAdams Jr. High came in as a First Place Winner, with the cast of Gary Lancon, Debbie Hime, Cathy Labay, Ronny Brewer, Terry Casey, and Mona Alexander. Cathy Labay and Terry Casey were both awarded All Star Cast.

Girls Humorous: Barbara Weiner, third place; Terry Fagg, finalist.

Boys Original Oration: Mitchel Winick, first place; Doug Laird, second place; Brett Wilson, third place.

Girls Original Oration: Merry Fagg, finalist.

Boys Famous Speech: Dennis Wingo, first place; Mitchel Winick, second place, Charles Normal, third place.

Girls Famous Speech: Debbie Hime and Merry Fagg tied for second place.

Boys Story Reading: Gary Lancon, third place.

Girls Story Reading: Barbara Weiner and Cathy Labay, finalists.

Boys Prose Reading: Sam Bivons, second place.

Girls Prose Reading: Merry Fagg, third place.

Boys Dramatic Interpretation: Mark Kleypas, finalist.

Girls Dramatic Interpretation: Barbara Weiner, third place.

8th Grade Extemporaneous: Doug Laird, first place; Jim Piland, finalist.

7th Grade Extemporaneous: Gary Sweet and Lank Simmons, finalists.

Ready Writing: Kathryn Lovelady, second place.

Spelling Finals: Susan Jeffers, second place.

Quartet Acting Interpretation Finals: Ronny Brewer, Jane Risinger, Terry Casey and Maureen Gallaher, second place winners. Brian Walker, Mitchel Winick, Barbara Weiner, and Mona Alexander, third place.

Number Sense: Jim Piland, second place in 8th grade category; Chris Vickroy, second place in 7th grade category.