

End-Of-Year Meets

Keep Students Busy

DICKINSON— News for the coming week at Dickinson High School include the plans for various groups to be out of town for end-of-the-year meets and competitions.

Band director, Gus Nelson left Wednesday, April 30 to take the band to Enid, Oklahoma for the Tri-State Band Festival. They will return on May 4.

Coach Doug Reid will take some of his boys to Austin this week-end for the State Meet. Van Johnson will enter the Mile Relay; Ronald Jenkins, the 880-Yard Relay; and Tommy Godard, the discus throwing event.

The Future Homemakers of America Convention will meet in Dallas from May 1 to 3. Mrs. Mildred Hickman and Mrs. Lois Thorson will be taking six girls with them to the meeting: Paulette Dalke, Nina Smathers, Lovanne Spencer, Therese Romero, Linda Beem and Susan Hickman.

Mr. George Parks will be leaving Thursday with his award-winning group to take their One-Act Play, "Reynard the Fox," to Austin for the state meet. Miss Sammye Mayo and Miss Marion Rucktashel will be sponsors along with Mr. Parks.

Members of the cast are Chuck Bulot, Mary Jo Heranen, Dennis Gallaher, Dickie Young, Danny Jones, John Caballero, Nancy Roeser, Debbie Heckendorn, Cindy Alexander and Bruce Hall.

Mr. Lackey's Advanced Biology II class will attend Sam Houston State College in Huntsville on Thursday, May 1.
