

Dickinson Enrollment Nears 4,000

DICKINSON—The first day enrollments for Dickinson schools, including special education, was 3,971.

“This enrollment is expected to increase as the year progresses. For planning purposes we have projected the peak enrollment for the year at 4,188,” Superintendent A. J. Labay said.

The enrollment by schools is as follows:

DICKINSON HIGH SCHOOL—1,259 students, with 68 regular teachers. 1 special education teacher, a principal, an associate principal, an assistant principal, a student consultant, two counselors and a librarian.

MC ADAMS JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL—969 students, with 48 regular teachers, 1 special education teacher, 1 part-time speech therapist, 2 remedial