

Stadium To Honor Vitanza

DICKINSON—In a ceremony before the start of the Dickinson-Liberty game Friday night, September 10, the football stadium will be named the Sam Vitanza Stadium, in commemoration for the many years of service given by the late Sam Vitanza to the students of the Dickinson schools.

The time of the ceremony is set for 7:15 p.m. It will incorporate an eulogy enumerating points of interest and honors which go to make up the story of 41 years of dedicated service by Sam Vitanza.
