

Camille Pratt Wins Again

DICKINSON—Camellia Jane Pratt, an eleven-year-old sixth-grade student from McAdams Junior High School in Dickinson, was declared winner of the Galveston County Spelling Bee Saturday for the second consecutive year. Nineteen county schools were represented at the Bee, which was held at O'Connell Junior High School.

Camellia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pratt, Jr., 1025 Shady Oak Drive.

After other contestants had been eliminated, Camellia battled Leslie Heeter, 13, of Seabrook Intermediate School, for seven rounds before Leslie misspelled "efficiency". Camellia has earned the right to compete with spellers from twenty-four counties at the East Texas Bee at Houston on April 15. She placed third in a field of thirty-four champions in last year's East Texas Bee.

CAMELLIA JANE PRATT