

DUNBAR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL in Dickinson was a colorful and lively place recently when storybook characters from out of the past came to life and could be seen in the halls and classrooms. They were students in Mrs. Lois Harrington's 4th-year reading class who dressed as their favorite fictional and historic characters to make giving book reports in class an activity full on pleasure and excitement.