

IT'S STORY TIME in the library for this group at Bacliff Elementary School. These students are listening to Miss Kathleen Crain, the librarian, read a story. Listening is fun for the children but it also builds their interest in reading and helps develop their listening skills.