

CAN YOU GUESS WHAT IT IS? It doesn't have a name actually. It's a large geometric figure made from soda straws which is being used in Mrs. Ondree Kuhn's sixth grade room at McAdams Junior High School in Dickinson to study angles and odd geometric patterns. The three students feel they can see just about every shape they have ever heard of. They are Dwayne Holmes (left), Melanie McFarland, and Suzanne Mosqueda.

1974