Are Named

Special to The News

DICKINSON, Dec. 15 — Sixteen Gators from the Dickinson High School football team received letters in the third annual Lions Club football banquet staged Tuesday night in the high school cafeteria.

Named by head coach Guy Nunnely were David Brown, Bob Craig, Jerry Atkins, Leon Thomas, George Fleener, Bobby Diehl (co-captain), Johnny Lee Tidwell, Manuel Martinez, Robert Pittman, Bob King, Allen Nelhl, Johnny High, Wayne Williams, H. E. Jackson, Jerry Mitchiner, Hershel Hughes and Melvin Cavillin (co-captain). Joseph Menotti also received a letter for serving as team manager.

Hershel Hughes was pointed out by Coach Nunnely as the District 28-AA back receiving the most votes on the district all-star team.

It came to light during the dinner that Cavillin had played the entire season with a broken bone in his right hand, never missing a single assignment.

Junior high football coach, Ray McLerran, named the following as lettermen: Gerald Dawson, Donald Kelly, Bill Wolston, Ernie Deats, Felton Bishop, Bill Diehl, Donald Childress, James Powell, Donald Coker, Robert Thompson, Norman Theriot, Homer Clark, James McDougle, Clyde Vawters, Larry Niblett and Tommy Stewart. Tommy Darby received a letter for being team manager.

Earl Leeney, Lion president, served as master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers.

Rev. Chad Murray gave the invocation.

Superintendent of schools, O. J. Baker, thanked the board of education for their understanding and cooperation during the past football season. He also expressed his gratitude to the Community Public Service Co. that kept the lighting system in order during the year, and also thanked the doctors, Dickinson Volunteer Fire Department, the newspapers, and all others who aided in making this one of the Gators' better seasons.
