Five plays after Dickinson gained possession of the ball in the second half they romped to their second touchdown with Billy Anderson scoring from six yards out. The try for the extra point failed.

Anderson made the longest run of the night when he caught a kickoff in his own end zone and ran it out 56 yards. He also shone on defense.

Webster gave the Dickinson fans some anxious moments in the closing seconds of the first half when they drove to the Dickinson seven-yard line.

An unusual fact about the game was that Andrew Wages, a Dickinson back who has only been working out with the team for three days, carried five times and gained 78 yards.
