

Malin Leads Gator Stats

DICKINSON—With District 12-AAA play opening this Friday, the Dickinson Gators will have little interest in statistics concerning their past performances, but the stats have been compiled on the non-district games and have been released.

Junior halfback Selden Malin tops the Gators in rushing, kick-off returns, and scoring. Malin has netted 427 yards on 76 carries, returned 4 kick-offs a total of 104 yards, and tallied 18 points for the Blue-and-White boys of coach Bill Ford.

Ken Ward and Lewis Little lead the Gators in passing and receiving, respectively. Ward has connected on 19 of 50 passes for 245 yards, while Little has latched on to six aeriels for 70 yards.

In the punting department, Jim Stewart has booted the pig-skin 18 times for a 33.7 avg., and David Ford has three punts for a 42.3 avg.

Leroy Barrow has picked off a pair of opposition aeriels to pace Dickinson in pass interceptions, while Bruce Rogers, who is out of action for the season with a knee injury, has recovered two fumbles by Gator opponents.

The following are the Dickinson pre-district statistics.
