SENIORS

MOST INTELLIGENT

Because they are most intelligent Tina and Roland start studying college bulletins early.

FAVORITES

Preston will be tops in society.

Wilma will always be The Belle of the Ball.

BEST CITIZENS

Charles and Virginia consult their Superintendent about an important matter.

JUNIORS

BEST CITIZENS

Bright as stars Mary Ann and A. F. lead the way as Best Citizens of the Junior Class.

FAVORITES

Ethel and Bobby's popularity keep them busy signing autographs.

MOST INTELLIGENT

As Most Intelligent Ed and Sarah will surely have good luck along their way.

SOPHOMORES

MOST INTELLIGENT

Norma Martin and Wade Allbritton are smart enough to know that homework is necessary for good grades.

FAVORITES

It seems as though Jackie Urbauer and Bobby Hughes are popular with others beside Sophomores.

BEST CITIZENS

Elizabeth Deats and Ray Morse may not be angels but the Sophomore class thinks they are the best citizens.

FRESHMEN

FAVORITES

Maybe their fine smiles account for the popularity of John and Joane.

BEST CITIZENS

As Best Citizens, Joe and Clara advise their classmate not to ride on the sidewalks.

MOST INTELLIGENT

Bob King and Patsy Clark prove they are intelligent by bringing their teacher an apple.

EIGHTH GRADE

BEST CITIZENS

Jerry and Elizabeth symbolize their citizenship in this pose with the Texas Flag.

FAVORITES

Charlotte and Melvin in this picture seem to be doing a good job of being favorites.

MOST INTELLIGENT

Diane and Joe appear to be busy getting more knowledge.

SEVENTH GRADE

FAVORITES

David Brown and Patsy Allbritton congratulate one another by shaking hands.

MOST INTELLIGENT

Bill Burns and Patricia Hockenjos show they are Most Intelligent by buying a Gator from Nancy Snow.

BEST CITIZENS

Jerry Rudloff and Karen Deats help keep the campus clean by picking up paper dropped by another student.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The members on this page are shown doing some of the things that give them points for the Honor Society.

All members must have a good academic record. This side of membership is represented here by James Tarpley and Roland Miller

Nancy Snow played the piano at the Lions Club banquet given for the Dickinson Chapter of the Honor Society.

Tina Porter works in Mrs. Hofheinz' office, assisting with many different jobs.

As ad salesman on the Gator, Larry Lane is getting instructions on ad selling from Mrs. McAdams.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

We get papers and books from all over the States.

Library assistants
check out a book for Leon Thomas.

Other assistants beautify the library with plants and by keeping the shelves straight.

GATOR STAFF

Nancy Snow, on her second year as an editor of the Gator, had her spare time filled with planning new ideas for the annual.

Nancy is busily checking up on some layouts of the yearbook.

GATOR STAFF

Edward rushes madly on the Halloween Carnival page to meet the deadline.

Edward Martin, the art editor, did most of the art work in the Gator.

GATOR STAFF

Marlyene Fleming is opening the big sales campaign by posting signs for advertising on all bulletin boards in school.

Co-Editor of the Gator and a member of the staff for three years, Marlyene assisted with picture taking and in planning certain sections of the yearbook.

GATOR

STAFF

Betty Jane, Juanita, Mary Frances and Peggy did outstanding work on layouts for the Gator both in and out of school.

Our ad salesmen at the moment seem to be giving their attention to a visitor. Do you suppose they are trying to sell him an ad?

These girls gave a great deal of their time at school in preparing layouts and doing other jobs connected with the yearbook.

DICKINSON'S SUN

Reporters Sarah, Jackie, Nancy, Bonnie and Pat hold an informal conference.

Snoopers Jeanne and Netha spy on two fish.

Reporters James, Faye and Larry interview Principal.

Art Editors Loretta Woehst and Ethel Urbauer.

DICKIN-SUN

Virginia Middlebrooks, associate editor of the Dickin-Sun, is getting a few ideas from Mr. Hofheinz on headline writing.

The associate editors sometimes conduct the staff meetings as Rita Hruby is doing here.

As editor of the Dickin-Sun, Tina Porter is checking a stencil before the publication of the paper.

NEWS LETTER MIMEOGRAPHERS

Beverly, Mary Frances, Audrey, and Juanita deserve a great deal of credit for the fine work they have done this year in mimeographing the News Letter.

LIFE-AT SCHOOL

LITERARY CONTEST

Janet demonstrates the technique she used to win first in District and Regional, and that sent her to the State Meet.

Carla Willis and Mary Ann Plaskas were contestants for District Meet and Ethel Urbauer was their alternate.

Tina Porter practices declamation for Regional Meet.

Hawaiian music floated through the air

These girls served at the banquet under the instruction of Mrs. Walker at right
