

WHERE WE EAT

A wholesome meal served to the second shift.

Never too hungry
to look up for a picture in our lunch room.

Service with a smile

DEMOCRACY AND PROGRESS

The Seventh Grade
receives instructions
before going to work.

The Advanced
Typing Class
takes speed test.

The Science Class balances a weighty problem.

A DEMOCRATIC SCHOOL

Mrs. Walker points out the importance of choosing the right materials.

Group discussion gives each student a chance to bring out his opinion.

These boys are learning a trade that will help them in future life.

Everyone seems to be enjoying the Sophomore Football Party.

Health and wholesome activities are an integral part of our school program.

Petesy doesn't seem to think it hurts—but, oh how Mickey dreads it.

The Eighth Grade taking their turns checking out books at the Bookmobile.

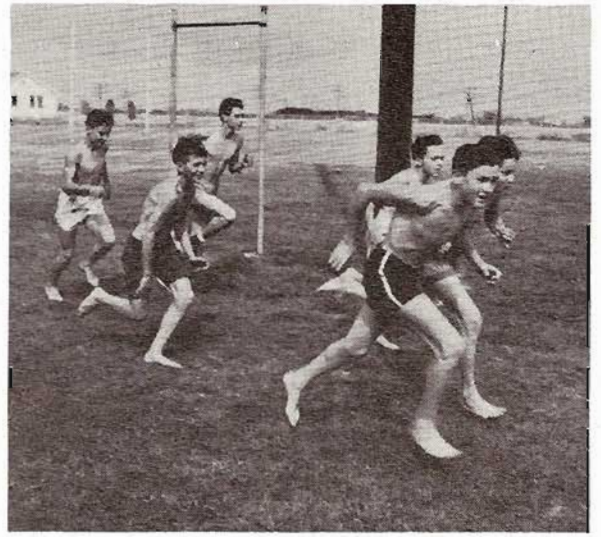

Cheering our team on to greater victory.

Junior High boys finish up race in P. E. class.

Junior High boys are caught in strained positions as they take exercises in P. E. classes.

Students enjoy social gatherings at noon on the campus.

The Seniors and Sophomores are all ready to go to the Ice Revue.

The Football Banquet sponsored by the Dickinson Lions Club.

Students receive their Christmas gifts in the auditorium.

Janet and Artha Ray hitch a ride on benches used in taking pictures.

Hall traffic between classes at High School.

OUR SUPERINTENDENT, O. J. BAKER
His untiring administrative efforts keep our schools functioning smoothly.

Our faculty, secretarial force, and administration. (One of the faculty members seems to be missing. Turn the page to find out which one.)

Here's the missing faculty member—Coach Guy Nunnelley. He was home sick in bed with flu when the group picture of the faculty was made.

Spectators caught unaware during an exciting basketball game.
