College of the Mainland is an institution with feelings!

Above all, it cares about the students who pass through its doors. College of the Mainland provides the environment for a close relationship between instructors and students. Classes are small, faculty members keep their office doors open for personal conferences whenever students need them and the entire college shares extra-curricular activities. It's an exciting, very personalized climate for learning.

In addition, College of the Mainland offers the following advantages:

- a wide selection of academic programs (transferable to senior institutions)
- outstanding technical vocational programs
- a modern, architecturally-pleasing campus, featuring the most up-to-date facilities
- a highly-qualified faculty, drawn from all parts of the country
- low tuition ($4.00 per semester hour)
- a comprehensive program of Financial Aid and Scholarships
